THE CONSPIRACY AND ITS OBJECTS

36. From in or about January 12, 1989, through in or about February 1994, at the City of San Juan, in the District of Puerto Rico, and elsewhere, and within the jurisdiction of this Court, the defendants,

[1] YAMIL H. KOURI PEREZ,
[2] JEANNETTE A. SOTOMAYOR VAZQUEZ,
[6] RAFAEL A. RIZEK NASSAR,
[7] MILAGROS GARCIA LEON,
[8] ARMANDO BOREL BARREIRO,
[9] EDGARDO ROSARIO BURGOS,
[10] LUIS E. DUBON OTERO,
[11] JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN,

did knowingly and willfully combine, conspire, confederate, and agree with each other, with ANGEL L. CORCINO MAURAS, JULIO A. CORCINO MAURAS AND JUAN E. RIZEK NASSAR, not indicted herein, and with others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to commit an offense against the United States, namely, as agents of an organization which received benefits in excess of $10,000.00 under a Federal program involving a grant, or other form of Federal assistance, in each successive one year period beginning in 1988 through 1994, to knowingly and willfully embezzle, steal, and obtain by fraud, and without authority knowingly convert to the use of a person not the rightful owner, and intentionally misapply property worth at least $5,000.00 owned by such organization, that is, monies in excess of $2,000,000.00 in program funds, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 666.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

OBJECT OF THE CONSPIRACY

37. It was the purpose and object of the conspiracy for the defendants, YAMIL H. KOURI PEREZ, JEANNETTE A. SOTOMAYOR VAZQUEZ, RAFAEL A. RIZEK NASSAR, MILAGROS GARCIA LEON, ARMANDO BOREL BARREIRO, EDGARDO ROSARIO BURGOS, LUIS E. DUBON OTERO, and JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN, together with co-conspirators not indicted herein, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to use the funds of ACHS and the ISSJ, for unauthorized personal benefits, and for the unauthorized personal benefit of others, through a pattern of deceptive conduct, and transactions of related corporate entities of the defendants, designed to create the appearance that the transactions were legitimate, when in fact, they were nothing more than a means of concealing the fraudulent nature of the disbursements. The pattern of deceptive conduct was further designed to conceal the fraudulent nature of the transactions and to protect the unlawful conspiracy from detection.

Criminal No. 97-091(JAF)

As a result of the unlawful conspiracy, the defendants embezzled, stole and obtained by fraud, in excess of $2,000,000.00 of public funds which were designated for the research and treatment of the AIDS crisis in San Juan.

MANNER AND MEANS OF THE CONSPIRACY

38. It was a part of the manner and means of the unlawful conspiracy that:

39. ACHS would be converted to a non-profit corporation, in order to improve its ability to qualify for federal grants, and making it eligible for increased amounts of federal funding.

40. The defendants, YAMIL H. KOURI PEREZ, JEANNETTE A. SOTOMAYOR VAZQUEZ, RAFAEL A. RIZEK NASSAR, MILAGROS GARCIA LEON, ARMANDO BOREL BARREIRO, EDGARDO ROSARIO BURGOS, LUIS E. DUBON OTERO, and JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN, would be placed in significant positions within ACHS and ISSJ, which would enable them to manipulate and divert the funds received by ACHS for the research and treatment of AIDS for unauthorized purposes.

41. Corporations under the management and control of the defendants, YAMIL H. KOURI PEREZ, RAFAEL A. RIZEK NASSAR, and

THIRD SUPERSEDING IND. J. MENT
Criminal No. 97-091(JAF)

ARMANDO BOREL BARREIRO, would be created for the purpose of contracting with ACHS, under the guise of offering goods and services to ACHS and the ISSJ.

42. Fictitious debts would be created between ACHS and/or ISSJ, and the corporations controlled by the defendants, in order to create the appearance that the funds paid to these corporations were for bona fide services.

43. The funds paid to these corporations would be used for the personal benefit of the defendants and their related corporate entities, or for the personal benefit of others at the direction of the defendants, for purposes not related to the legitimate objectives of ACHS, including political contributions and the payment of bribes to public officials.

44. Checks would be made payable to third parties who did not render legitimate services to ACHS, and those checks would be cashed by parties other than the payees, in order to divert the funds for purposes not related to the legitimate objectives of ACHS, including political contributions and the payment of bribes to public officials.

45. Contracts purportedly for professional services would be entered into between ACHS and various other individuals, corporate entities and organizations, in order to provide a mechanism to divert ACHS funds for the personal benefit of the defendants and their related corporate entities, and for the benefit of others at the defendants' direction, including the payment of political contributions and the payment of bribes to public officials.

THIRD SUPERSEDING IND. JUDGMENT
Criminal No. 97-091(JAF)

46. ACHS checks payable to these corporate entities and organizations would be converted into manager's checks in order to facilitate the negotiability of said checks and their transfer to their ultimate destination.

47. These manager's checks would be deposited into the Southern account at Hamilton Bank in order to conceal the ultimate destination of these monies.

48. ACHS checks payable to corporate entities would also be converted to cash at a check cashing business.

49. Services contracts would be created, and back-dated, in an attempt to justify the services purportedly rendered by these corporations.

50. The law firm of the defendant Luis E. Dubon Otero, would be paid substantial sums of money in the form of a retainer in the amount of $10,000 a month, for an aggregate total amount approximately of $779,079.51.

51. ACHS funds were diverted for the purpose of making political contributions and the further purpose of purchasing equipment, motor vehicles, among other items, as unauthorized contributions to political campaigns.

THIRD SUPERSEDING IND. LAMENT
Criminal No. 97-091(JAF)

52. Personal employees of some of the defendants would be paid with ACHS funds for services provided exclusively to the defendants in their personal capacity. These employees appeared on the ACHS payroll, as if they were ACHS employees which in fact they were not, in order to conceal the fraudulent nature of those payments.

53. Attempts would be made to pressure employees of ACHS to conceal the existence of fraudulent transactions and/or activities at ACHS. Attempts would also be made to "buy" the cooperation and silence of ACHS employees and others connected, directly or indirectly to the program.

OVERT ACTS

54. In furtherance of the conspiracy and in order to effect its objects, the defendants, YAMIL H. KOURI PEREZ, JEANNETTE A. SOTOMAYOR VAZQUEZ, RAFAEL A. RIZEK NASSAR, MILAGROS GARCIA LEON, ARMANDO BOREL BARREIRO, EDGARDO ROSARIO BURGOS, LUIS E. DUBON OTERO, and JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN, together with , Angel L. Corcino Mauras, Julio R. Corcino Mauras, and Juan Rizek Nassar, not indicted herein, and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, committed and caused to be committed the below enumerated acts, among others, in the District of Puerto Rico and elsewhere:

55. Between in or about January 1988, and in or about in or about November 1988, the defendants YAMIL H. KOURI PEREZ and JORGE the contract employee from the ACHS operating account in the approximate amount of $60,000.00, which represented monies substantially in excess of the sums due to the contract employee, in order to allow the defendants to use the excess funds for purposes not connected with the legitimate objectives of ACHS.

61. In or about November 1988, the defendant MILAGROS GARCIA LEON, completed forms necessary to hire an individual purportedly to work at ACHS in the maintenance department. This individual would in reality be employed exclusively as a housekeeper for the defendant JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN in his personal residence. This individual shall be hereinafter referred to as the "Garib housekeeper".

62. Between on or about November 30, 1988, and December 1, 1989, the Garib housekeeper was paid approximately $8,149.12 from ACHS funds in payment of her salary for her housekeeping functions at the personal residence of the defendant JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN.

63. Between on or about May 31, 1990, through on or about October 22, 1990, the defendants YAMIL H. KOURI PEREZ and LUIS E. DUBON OTERO, caused checks aggregating approximately $35,000.00 to be issued from the ACHS operating account at Banco Popular, to be issued to third parties which had not performed any legitimate services for ACHS and who were not entitled to those funds.

COUNT XXXV

False Declarations Before Grand Jury

18 USC § 1623

1. On or about the 18th day of February, 1999, in the District of Puerto Rico, JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN, while under oath and testifying in a proceeding before Grand Jury 97-1, a Grand Jury of the United States in the District of Puerto Rico, knowingly did make a false material declaration, that is to say:

2. At the time and place aforesaid the grand jury was conducting an investigation to determine whether violations of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 371, 666, 1512 and 1956 had been committed, and to identify the persons who had committed, caused the commission of, and conspired to commit such violations; it was material to the said investigation that the grand jury ascertain if JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN had ever given monies and/or equipment or anything of value for political contributions to a political candidate.

3. At the time and place alleged, JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN appearing as a witness under oath at a proceeding before the grand jury knowingly made the following declaration in response to questions with respect to the material matter alleged in paragraph II as follows:

A. Q.: I ask you if you ever gave money for political contributions for his campaign in 1988?

A.: Never in my entire life have I given [political candidate] any type of money whatsoever.

B. Q.: Did you ever take amounts of money in excess of $200,000.00 to [political candidate] for his political campaign in 1988?

A.: No, that's not correct.

C. Q.: Now sir, did you ever recall having been in a meeting with (an independent contractor) and Jeannette Sotomayor in which both of you showed him a check for $60,000.00 in lieu of payment for his services, he stated that it was not the correct amount, that in fact what ACHS owed him was less, and he was advised by you to go ahead and endorse the check, take amount owed to him and the excess to be given to you?

A.: No that's incorrect, I've never been in a meeting wheter that happened or anything similar to that ever happened, and it was not my job to pay Mr. (the independent contractor), and I never paid Mr. Mr. (the independent contractor) for anything,. Moreover, I don't even know how many payments were made to Mr. (the independent contractor).

D. Q.: Now sir, do you ever recall lending this video camera that was purchased by ACHS for an excess of $19,000.00, lending that video camera to [political candidate] for his political campaign in 1988?

A.: I tell you again, I don't even know what camera you're talking about. And if I don't know what camera you're talking about how can I know what camera you're talking about in relation to Mr.[political candidate]. And even if that camera existed, I don't even know what camera you're talking about.

4. When in truth and in fact, as the defendant JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN then well knew, said information was false.

The aforesaid underscored testimony of JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN, as he then and there well knew and belived, was false in that the defendant JORGE L. GARIB BAZAIN, did in fact give monies and equipment to a political candidate for the office of Mayor of San Juan.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1623.
